Our Mission:

Inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, rooted in the spirituality of St. Ignatius, Jesuit Retreat House provides a sacred setting for outreach, retreats and programs of growth and development for people in the contemporary Church and society.

"What you let choose you, will drive you"
--Interviewee on NPR.

Dear Friend of Jesuit Retreat House:

What do you seek for happiness? A big home? A recognized career? A fabulous salary?

What is the 'drive' or 'passion' in your life? What has grabbed you and absorbed you? What do you think about when you are alone? What consumes your energy, your creativity, your relationships with others?

Or, perhaps, your relationship with God? Even more challenging: Is God part of this driven, tireless, motion-filled life that controls you?

When we give time to our soul, our spirit, we invite these furies of our competitive lives to be confronted and challenged, to disappear and in their place we welcome peace, generosity, open mindedness, and love. Yes, the love of a God who has been waiting so patiently to come in. St. Ignatius Loyola had a term for this openness to God: the Spiritual Exercises. We might refer to it as 'retreat'. In the Book of Revelations, there is a warming and devotional image of Our Lord knocking on a door in the passage which says: "Here I stand, knocking at the door. If anyone hears me calling and opens the door, I will enter his house and have supper with him and he with me." Rev. 3: 20.

The image has been captured by artists for centuries; no doubt you have seen a popular rendition on many a holy card over the years. I invite you to conjure up that image and ask yourself, 'What have I let choose me? What can I choose to replace it so that I am the person God has created me to be?' When I come close to answering these questions, I will be closer to holiness.

So I invite you to come to the JRH. Make a weekend retreat. Or, start with a day retreat or an evening talk. Put your fear aside. Open the door on which He is knocking and let Him in during your quiet time here. Choose Him. Your life will never be the same because you will be letting His love drive your life, and the seductive attractions of secularism will no longer 'choose' you.

In Christ's love,

Sr. Mary Ann Flannery, S.C.
Executive Director

JRH New Board Chair

I am honored and happy to serve as the Chairperson of the JRH Board this year and I feel privileged to work alongside the many generous individuals who are also serving on the Board.

Together we are blessed to support Sr. Mary Ann Flannery, S.C. and the rest of the dedicated and talented staff as they strive to provide the spiritual nourishment for such a wide range of seekers - the youth who are growing in a heartfelt knowledge of Jesus Christ through their Kairos retreats, the young adults who are further discerning God's call to them, the addicted who seek the healing that only Jesus can provide, the seniors who long to deepen their relationship with God, those in ministry who need to recharge their spiritual batteries, the professionals striving to live their faith in the workplace.

As a Board, we, too, are making a concerted effort at our own ongoing spiritual formation. Last winter, we participated in the 6-week "Called and Sent" Lay Leadership module, "Ignatian Spirituality: Grounding for Life." Together we learned more about St. Ignatius and the Spiritual Exercises, we prayed together and we shared how we are finding God in the work we are doing at JRH.

Additionally, at each Board meeting, the opening prayer includes an "Ignatian moment" to help us stay focused on the Jesuit charisma that shapes all we do and we close each meeting with a communal discernment. We take several minutes to reflect on the meeting to notice the moments when we felt discouraged or confused (spiritual desolation) and the moments we felt energized or hopeful (spiritual consolation) to further discern how God may be leading us as a group.

Finally, over the past few months, several Board members have been interviewing past Board chairs and Executive Directors of JRH in order to piece together a "sacred history" of JRH. Although we are still finalizing this document, the rough draft provides ample evidence that the Holy Spirit has been very active in the ministry of JRH for many, many years! No matter the individuals serving or the problems they encountered, over the years, through the grace of God, JRH has continued to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ through the good news of the Spiritual Exercises. It is humbling, indeed, to be a part of this awesome ministry as we write our own pages of its sacred history.

In closing, in the name of the One who loves us, heals us, leads us, and saves us, Jesus Christ, our Lord, I thank you for being a part of the sacred history of JRH and I ask that you continue to journey with us in support of its critical ministry – helping all seekers to know our loving God.

Christ's peace, Rita Carfagna

JRH Welcomes Fr. Roche, S.J.

JRH Welcomes Fr. Matthew Roche, S.J.

We are very pleased to welcome Father Matt Roche, S.J., as a fulltime minister here at the Jesuit Retreat House. Father Matt comes from the New York Province and will be living with the Jesuit community at St. Ignatius High School. He brings 27 years of experience in spiritual direction and has been on staff at Mt. Manresa in New York for three years before its closing this past June.

Fr. Roche entered the Jesuits in 1973. After entering he tutored ex-convicts, published books on tape for the blind, worked with the terminally ill at Calvary Hospital, and Men of the Street at a Soup Kitchen in Syracuse, as well as the mentally handicapped at Daybreak, a L'Arche Home outside of Toronto. He taught English at McQuaid Jesuit High School, Rochester, New York, edited a Province insert quarterly for Company magazine, and worked on the staff of two parishes: Xavier in Manhattan and St. Anthony's in Oceanside, Long Island.

2013 Hearts on Fire

On May 10, Jesuit Retreat House held its annual fundraising event “Hearts on Fire”. The event gathered more than 400 supporters of the retreat house for cocktails and dinner catered by Chefs For Hire.

The theme for this years event was Celebrating those of faith who serve the underserved.

The guest speaker was V. Rev. Timothy P. Kesicki, SJ. Honored at the event were Peggy Finucane, Ph.D., Director, Center for Services & Social Action at John Carroll University, James E. Skerl, Teacher, Theology Department at Saint Ignatius High School and Paul D. Lumsden, Volunteer with the Jesuit Retreat House and advocate for addiction recovery programs.

Ruth Graskemper along with Richard & Julie Jerdonek, served as co-chairs for the event.

Co-Chairs Ruth Graskemper, Richard & Julie Jerdonek and JRH Executive Director Sr Mary Ann Flannery, SC.

Ignatius in the Meadow

A crowd of over 200 people of all ages gathered in the JRH Meadow for an evening of music, prayer and fun led by Catholic musician Matt Fafrak. Those gathered texted prayers of forgiveness, gratitude and love to family and friends around the world. Did you miss it? That’s okay –we’ll do it again next year!

Ignatius in the Meadow

On July 31, Jesuit Retreat House celebrated the Feast of St. Ignatius

With our second annual concert and Prayer Mob.

Save the date, July 31, 2014, and get your smart phones ready!

Individually Directed Retreatants at JRH for a July Weekend Retreat.

Jim Manney, of Loyola Press, has written an engaging little book on the gateway to the Spiritual Exercises titled, God Finds Us: An Experience of the Spiritual Exercises. This is a clear, down-to- earth testament of how the Exercises invite us to be captured by God’s love. Cleveland sportswriter, Terry Pluto, a friend of the JRH, has written two fine volumes of essays titled Faith and You, Volumes 1 &2, demonstrating the importance of faith in governing and directing our lives. These and other fine books can be purchased at our book store.

Day Retreats

Day Retreats at JRH

Day retreats at JRH are offered monthly beginning in September. Each retreat focuses on a different dimension of Christian living and uses Ignatian prayer practices to cultivate the soul. Day Retreats begin with coffee and pastry at 9:00 a.m., conclude by 3:00 p.m. Day retreats include celebration of Mass and home-cooked lunch. Cost $25.00

September 18 - Presenter TBA

October 29 - Fr. Matt Roche, S.J.

November 18 - Presenter TBA

Women's Afternoon of Prayer: Coloring your Prayerlife. Sunday October 13, 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm. Cost $20

Facilitated by: Sr. Mary Ann Flannery and Louisa Celebrezze

Enjoy an autumn day of prayer reflecting on nature and using your imagination as a guide to a fuller experience of prayer. We will discover approaches to contemplation despite our busy-ness and ponder the gifts of creation to inspire deeper, loving prayer. The day includes cider and pumpkin bread.

Evening Retreats

Evening Retreats at JRH

An evening retreat at JRH is an ideal way to end a busy workday. Evenings begin at 6:30 p.m. with coffee and pastry. Retreats conclude by 9:00 p.m. Time is provided for prayer, presentation, and personal reflection. Cost is $15.00/retreat unless otherwise noted.

Getting Lost, Getting Found. September 11. Come to the Jesuit Retreat House for this Men's Evening Retreat. Father Connell's reflections will play off the stereotype of the refusal of men to ask for directions when they are lost. Using stories from Sacred Scripture, the lives of saints, and popular culture, he will illustrate how getting lost can be a starting point for a new life in "getting found" by the love of God.

Decisions! Decisions! Decisions! October 9. Are you facing an important change in life? A challenging decision to make? Father Matthew Roche, S.J. will take you through the steps of prayerful discernment so that you may find peace and the direction God wants you to take.

Spiritual Planning for the Third Age. October 16. It's called the Third Age and if you are between 60 and 90, you're in it. Many have done financial planning, but how many have planned from a spiritual point of view? How can my life in retirement be meaningful and productive spiritually? Join Fr. William Karg as he will discuss some insights that can help us realize new creativity and come closer to God in this time of life. Cost is $20 a person or $35 for a couple.

Fall Programs

Morning Prayer for Women with Sr. Mary Ann Flannery, S.C.
Mondays, 9:30-10:45 a.m.

August 26
September 23
October 28
November 25

Women from all walks of life are invited to pray together and learn more about the beauty of prayer. This prayer group will refresh your spirit and help you find strength in regular prayer habits. Just bring your Bible and come as you are! Cost is $5, and includes coffee and pastry. Bring a friend ~she will thank you!

Thursday October 10, 6:30 -8:00 p.m.

Advent Opportunities at JRH

Advent Luncheon "Remembering our Martyrs." December 2, 2013.

Sr. Christine Rody, SC served as a missionary along with Dorothy Kazel, OSU and Jean Donovan, both from Cleveland who were martyred on December 2, 1980 in El Salvador. Sister will tell what it was like to serve with these women and she will explain how our faith can support martyrs in today's violent world. Midday prayer starts at 11:30 followed by lunch and the speaker. Program concludes by 1:30. Cost is $25.

"An Afternoon of Advent Reflection for Women Religious." December 8, 2013

Sister Carol Kandiko, CSA, will facilitate the afternoon. Carol is the director of Centering Space in Lakewood, Ohio. She is very experienced in leading individuals to find peace and joy through prayer and artistic appreciation of God's amazing presence in our lives. A perfect way to enjoy the advent season. Cost is $15, the program is from 2:00 - 5:00 pm. Refreshments Included.

Advent Day Retreat: "Awakening the Heart of Christ." December 9, 2013.

Facilitated by Fr. Matthew Roche, S.J. Do you believe that anticipation of the holidays is more than Hallmark's Christmas specials? Does the background music of the season fail to move you as much as in the past? What will awaken your heart? A day of reflection based on the overwhelming love of God for us will put you in the spirit, not just for the holidays but for many days to come. Father Roche will present talks on the spirit of advent and provide prayer experiences to help you approach Christmas with more joy and peace. Day begins at 9:00 a.m. and concludes by 3:00 p.m. Cost is $25.

Advent Weekend Retreat: "And the Word Was Made Flesh." December 14-15, 2013.

Do you want some peace and quiet before the hectic holidays? Are you looking to capture the meaning of Christmas, especially after a major change or loss in your life? How does this important holiday impact your life no matter how you celebrate it? Come and enjoy the beauty of the season in stillness and reflection. Facilitated by Sr. Mary Ann Flannery, SC and Fr. Mathew Roche, S.J. This weekend retreat takes place Saturday 11:00 a.m. through Sunday with departure after 10:00 a.m. Mass. Costs $90, including room and board.

Thank you to the Gesu Women

A big thank you to Mary Abood, of the Gesu Moms Annual Retreat who led the drive to collect funds for a fire pit as a gift to JRH. God Bless you, Mary and all the Gesu Moms!

Pre-Cana Days

Pre-Cana couples take time away from the flurry of wedding planning to reflect upon the Sacrament as it is lived each day. Married couples share witness stories, and time is set aside for one on one conversation. The day ends with Mass and dinner. Pre-Cana days at JRH meet diocesan requirements for marriage preparation.

Upcoming Pre-Cana dates are:
September 22, October 20 and November 3
12:45 - 8:00 pm
Cost is $80/Couple

In Loving Memory

Each month we remember our benefactors with Mass. In a special way we remember our friends who have gone home to the Lord.

We remember and pray for our longtime friend, Jerry Barry who made over 60 retreats at JRH through the Saint Ignatius Alumni. He is surely in heaven!

We also remember and pray for Richard Norris who consistently made yearly retreats despite challenging health issues.

Please let us know when you lose a loved one, and we will add them to our Mass intentions.

Thanking Our Donors

Two Grants awarded to JRH

In July, JRH received grant funding from two foundations. The first is from the SC Ministry Foundation for funding for 100 caregivers (from non-profit organizations) to attend two retreats. Sr. Mary Ann Flannery, SC and John Ropar, Ph.D., P.C.C. will facilitate the retreats: "Whole person, Holy Work, a Day of Reflection and Renewal."

The second grant was awarded to JRH from the Sisters of Charity Foundation of Cleveland for the planning and implementation of three Seasonal Eco-Spirituality and Justice Retreats for Urban Youth. This is a collaboration between JRH, St. Martin de Porres High School, and the Humility of Mary Sisters. Sister Barbara O'Donnell, HM will facilitate the retreats for 20 students at JRH.

Join us for a taste of Italy, Sunday, October 6, 2013

Ignatian Currents: Embracing God's Love in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola

Freedom to Love and Be Loved

Friday, October 25,

7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

(Coffee and Conversation from 6:30 p.m.)

Choosing freedom to love and be loved is a central transformative dynamic in the Spiritual Exercises. This evening's presentation will explore the experience of choosing freedom, what helps and hinders our choosing from both a psychological and spiritual perspective. The psychology of twentieth-century Swiss psychoanalyst, Carl Jung, will be used to interact with and unpack some of the dynamics in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

Embracing God's Transforming Love

Saturday, October 26,

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

(Coffee and Conversation from 8:30 a.m.)

This day includes lunch

How can we more fully embrace God's transforming love? What helps us to be receptive to this love? Applying the psychology of twentieth-century Swiss psychoanalyst, Carl Jung, to the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, we will focus on how our image of God gets formed, "The Principle and Foundation" of the Spiritual Exercises and the desires of the authentic Self. We will explore "The Call of the King," Ignatian contemplation and the practice advocated by Carl Jung called www.redeentiactive imagination. The day will include input, experience-based learning as well as small and large group sharing.

Jesuit Retreat House Gift Certificates make terrific all-occasion gifts for special people in your life!

- Birthday?
- Anniversary?
- New Baby?
- Special thank you?
- Christmas?

Friends of JRH, Jean Sullivan, Robin Craig, and Kathy Haag celebrated their decade-changing birthdays with a weekend private retreat. The women had a wonderful experience and they would recommend it for any group of friends celebrating birthdays, anniversaries, or simply friendship. Why not look into this?

We offer Gift Certificates for the special people in your life. Treat your family and friends to precious time away on the peaceful, sacred grounds of the JRH. In a noisy and hectic world, it is good to get away!
