Our Mission:

Inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, rooted in the spirituality of St. Ignatius, Jesuit Retreat House provides a sacred setting for outreach, retreats and programs of growth and development for people in the contemporary Church and society.

Dear Friend of Jesuit Retreat House,

In reflecting upon the past year, the words from a popular song taken from the Book of Ecclesiastes have come to mind a number of times: “To everything - turn, turn, turn. There is a season - turn, turn, turn. And a time to every purpose under heaven.” In helping our now young adult children learn to downhill ski over the years, this has been a theme song. The essence of skiing is making turns: understanding when and how to turn, making turns that are both anticipated and unexpected, not being afraid and not going too fast...and so it is with life. It seems that making turns is foundational to the spiritual journey: discerning the directions to turn each year, and each day, that lead to “finding God in all things,” to deepening our relationship with God, and to bringing God’s love more fully into our world.

Each year we continue to make the turns to relate the wonderful gift of Ignatian spirituality to the diverse needs and hopes of the people we serve at JRH. We are always striving to enhance our capacity to serve more people in ways that are ever-relevant to their lives. In the coming months our retreats and programs will address the Spiritual Exercises and enriching one’s prayer life, the inspiration of Pope Francis in the world, reflections on the lives of saints, and a rich range of retreats for Lent. We also offer planning for a life-giving retirement, understanding the power and gift of emotion, making connections between our spirituality and everyday life, and an expanding array of Lay Leadership Programs for parishes.

I remain very grateful for the memories and meaning of JRH that live so deeply in people’s lives. Just last week a woman visited JRH with a friend and noted with much feeling: “I love this place with all my heart.”

I want to give special encouragement for you to consider not only the retreats and programs highlighted in this newsletter, but also to look ahead to the silent individual directed retreats we host in June and July. Whether it be for 8 days, 4-5 days, a weekend - a retreat can be a grace-filled opportunity to take the time to pray and reflect upon something truly important in your life – your relationship to God, finding deeper meaning, challenging questions, the right direction, the turns of your life that need to be made. Consider inquiring about or visiting us for a retreat – it is a great gift to oneself!

I again want to emphasize my hope to build new opportunities for collaborating with our JRH friends and the wider community in creating retreats, programs and conversations that help people to make the turns of life that truly lead to “finding God in all things.” Please feel free to contact me or our staff with your ideas and possibilities.

God be with you,

Richard S. Krivanka, Executive Director

Development Updates

Marian R. Rubin, Director of Development

Thank you for your Generosity!

We are blessed to have so many friends and benefactors! Your generous gifts to our annual Fall Appeal, in addition to those who joined us at the Philanthropia luncheon this year at Landerhaven, assists us to continue our mission, providing a sacred setting for outreach, retreats and programs at the Jesuit Retreat House. Together we bring spiritual formation to leaders and people who serve in the contemporary Church and society.

“Tap” into the Jesuit Retreat House

Come and join your peers for the second annual “Tap” into the Jesuit Retreat House event at the Great Lakes Brewing Tasting room (2702 Carroll Ave., Cleveland, Ohio – ages 21 & up). This fundraising event will take place Thursday, February 19 from 6PM-9PM. Michael McLaughlin, Theology Chair of St. Ignatius H.S. and winning soccer Coach, will be our guest speaker. We will announce upcoming younger adult programs scheduled to be held at the JRH. The cost of the admission is $30 ($35 at door). Limit 200 attendees. Register early online at www.jrh-cleveland.org or call 440.884.9300.

JRH and “You Can” partner to provide Youth Leadership retreats

JRH is very grateful to the The Raskob Foundation for the funding of two Youth retreats. Fr. Matt Roche, SJ from JRH partnered with “You Can” (Brian Dean and Paul Koopman) to hold the programs for students from Benedictine High School and St. Martin de Porres High School. This new retreat entitled “Called to Lead”, is designed to motivate high school juniors and seniors to rely on prayer and the Catholic faith as they enter a dynamic time when they make many life decisions including vocation, college and career choices. In their post-retreat surveys, both the students and their ministry leaders had a very positive experience, and would like to see JRH hold future youth leadership retreats.

JRH partners with St. Martin de Porres, Humilty of Mary Sister, and Domincan Sisters of Peace

The St. Ann’s Legacy Foundation funded JRH for 20 students and 5 Ministry leaders from St. Martin de Porres H.S. to experience a day at the Crown Point Ecology Center in Bath Ohio, returning to JRH for an overnight retreat. St. Barbara O’Donnell, HM planned the retreat with Steve Suding and Emily Klein McFadden of St. Martin de Porres H.S., and Lynn Gregor, Education Coordinator at the Crown Point Ecology Center. The students had an informative tour of the farm, and walked an eleven circuit labyrinth in the meadow. They returned to JRH to share dinner and evening prayer. Other activities included group sharing, an ecology video, working in the JRH organic garden, an art activity, and a silent trail walk of reflection. The desire of the students was to extend the retreat next year over the entire weekend.

Lay Leadership Updates

Martha Campbell, Lay Leadership Director

This winter/spring we are piloting a new program, Embracing the Mystery. Designed and developed by the co-leadership team of Karen Broer and Joan Carney, the program is being offered to spiritual directors, retreat leaders, pastoral ministers and those who have made the full Spiritual Exercises. Grounded in Ignatian spirituality, it will focus on an exploration of the Paschal Mystery (Christ’s passion, death, resurrection and ascension) as a way of finding personal meaning in life’s joys and challenges. Two Lenten programs will also be offered: 1) Finding God in Daily Work will be offered by the co-leadership team of Sharon Bramante and Claudette Matero at St. Basil the Great Parish, Brecksville and 2) Living Prayer will be offered at St. Clarence Parish, North Olmsted by a team of leaders: Susan Antall, Martha Campbell, Mary Ann Campbell, Patrick Cleary-Burns, John Carlson and Jackie Krejcik. Nurturing the Call: Leading Contemplative Group Programs and Retreats, a collaborative effort of the Ignatian Spirituality Institute (ISI) and JRH, will engage 8 participants in developing silent retreats based in the Spiritual Exercises. The retreats will become part of the future JRH programming.

Ignatian Currents Program — May 29th & 30th — Joseph Tetlow, S.J.

This coming May 29th and 30th, we will be welcoming Joseph Tetlow, SJ as facilitator of our Ignatian Currents Program. His program entitled “What Has Christ to Do with Lunch?” will focus on Living the Christ-Life in the World based on Pope Francis’ Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel. More information on all of these programs can be found on our website.

She later founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart and provided great care and support to Italian immigrants in the United States at the turn of the 20th century. Immigrants then as now faced many hardships. They worked at the most menial labor and experienced discrimination in both the wider society and their own church. What can we learn from St. Frances Xavier’s prayer, struggles and dedication that speaks to our care for immigrants in our time?
